

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction.....	5
Chapter I
Anthropological determinants of the educational process	17
1. The understanding of man in personalist philosophy . .	18
1.1. The image of the person in personalism	21
1.2. The human person - a perspective of development	31
2. Education as the supporting of a man's integral development	38
2.1. Man - the subject of education.....	40
2.2. The integral character of education	47
2.3. Social and religious aspects of education	51
3. The family as the environment of a man's development and education	60
3.1. The family dimension of human existence	63
3.2. Family relations and bonds in the process of educating a child	68
3.3. Educational dilemmas and threats to contemporary family	77
4. The role of an authority in a young man's education . .	85
4.1. The pedagogical dimension of an authority	88
4.2. The connection of an authority and responsibility in education	92
4.3. Kinds of authority in education	95
Chapter II
Social exclusion in contemporary youth	103
1. Education of youth in the area of globalization	107
1.1. Postmodernist image of human existence and education	115

1.2. Basic environments of youth's education and socialization	122
1.3. The mass media in young people's perception . . .	141
2. Problems of the adolescent period	153
2.1. Dynamism of development vs. young people's lifestyle	157
2.2. Present day threats at the adolescent period . . .	163
2.3. Social space vs. young people's hopes and expectations	169
3. Young people's marginalization and social exclusion . .	175
3.1. Alienation in present day young people	183
3.2. The phenomenon of "children of the street" as a syndrome of social exclusion	198
3.3. Aid actions directed at juveniles in an open environment	207

Chapter III

Formation of Don Bosco's pedagogical thought 219

1. Social and educational background of the life of Italian youth in the 19 th century	223
2. The sources and development of Don Bosco's pedagogical thought	230
3. The area of Don Bosco's protective-educational work .	242

Chapter IV

The preventive system in the work with young people threatened with social exclusion 251

1. The innovative character of Don Bosco's preventive system	253
1.1. Formation of the preventive system	257
1.2. Essential elements of the preventive system in education of young people.....	269
2. Educational environment in Don Bosco's pedagogical work	286
2.1. The value of educational environment in the preventive system	288
2.2. The Oratory as an environment for educating young people.....	292
2.3. Formation of young people's maturity in the Oratory	297

3. The style of educational influence in the preventive system.....	302
3.1. The position of the educator and his charge in Don Bosco's pedagogy	304
3.2. Educational presence and family atmosphere in the Oratory environment	311
4. Topicality of Don Bosco's pedagogy	318
5. The preventive system in the contemporary education	325
A concluding reflection	337
Bibliography	345
Appendix: Don Bosco's selected works.....	375
I. The Preventive System in the Education of the Young.....	375
II. Concerning the Punishments to Be Inflicted in Salesian Houses	383
III. St. John Bosco's letter on the state of the Oratory . .	395
Summary	405