

Table of Contents

General Introduction.....	9
Preliminary Questions	17
1. The Research Method	17
1.1 Status Quaestionis	17
1.2 The Purpose and Relevance of the Present Work	19
1.3 Limitations of the Study	20
1.4 The Methodological Approach Used in the Research	21
1.5 The Organization of Work in the Research	22
1.6 The Literature of Question Used in the Research	27
2. The Importance of Work in the Contemporary Context of Fundamental Moral Theology	29
2.1 Different Concepts of Truth - An Epistemological Approach	30
2.2 The Epistemological Notions of Truth in the Modern Anglo-Saxon and Continental Philosophy	40
2.3 The Epistemological Notion of Truth in the Post-Vatican II Council of the Catholic Theology	46
2.4 The Post-Conciliar Discussion on Conscience and Moral Truth . . .	51
3. The Truth as a Moral Category	61
3.1 The Many Aspects of Moral Cognition	61
3.2 The Concept of Truth as Human Moral Choice	67
3.3 Moral Truth and Historical Dimension	71
3.4 Newman's Determination for the Moral Truth	74

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER I: Faith. Crede, ut intelligas	77
1. The First Part. Faith from the Perspective of Newman	78
1.1 The Nature of Faith and Obedience	78
1.2 The Act of Faith and Rationalism	85
1.3 Faith without Sight	93
1.4 Faith as a Tool in the Discovery of Moral Truth	98
2. The Second Part. Logic and the Phenomenon of Faith	105
2.1 Assent and Apprehension	105
2.2 Assent as an Unconditional Act	117
2.3 Assent and Inference	124
2.4 Assent, Apprehension, and Inference in the Pursuit of Moral Truth	132
3. The Third Part. Correlations	137
3.1 The Idea of Dialogue between Faith and Reason	137
3.2 The Dialogue between Faith and Reason - a Challenge for Relativistic Thinking	143
3.3 The Function of Faith in the Realm of Reason	149
3.4 The Relation of Faith and Love	153
 CHAPTER II: Reason. Secundum perfectum usum rationis	 161
1. The First Part. Reason as Defined by Newman	161
1.1 Area of Real - Implicit Reason and Notional - Explicit Reason ...	162
1.2 Fideism and Rationalism towards Unity of Thought and Action ...	166
1.3 The Issues of Knowledge and Probability	171
1.4 Reason as a Tool in the Discovery of Moral Truth	176
2. The Second Part. Logic and the Phenomenon of Reason	181
2.1 Reason as a Function of the Soul	181
2.2 Reason as a Faculty Helped by the Holy Spirit	187
2.3 Reason as a 'Judge of Revelation'	190
2.4 The Pride of Reason - Usurpation of Reason	195
3. The Third Part. Correlations	199
3.1 The Relation of Reason and Faith with Other Sciences	200
3.2 The Dialogue between Reason and Conscience	207
3.3 The Function of Reason in the Realm of Faith	211
3.4 The Attitude of Reason when it Satisfies an Act of Faith	216
 CHAPTER III: Conscience. Bonum faciendum malum vitandum	 221
1. The First Part. Newman's Definition of Conscience	221
1.1 Conscience - a Lector of Moral Truths	222
1.2 Impact of the Light of the Holy Spirit on Conscience	227

1.3	Conscience and Moral Judgment	232
1.4	Conscience as a Tool in the Discovery of Moral Truth	237
2.	The Second Part. Logic and the Phenomenon of Conscience	242
2.1	Conscience as Moral Sense	242
2.2	Conscience as a Sense of Duty	248
2.3	Conscience as a Magisterial Dictate	253
2.4	Conscience as a Sanction of Right Conduct	258
3.	The Third Part. Correlations	263
3.1	Conscience in Confrontation with Authority	264
3.2	The Dialogue of Conscience and Faith	270
3.3	The Function of Conscience in the Space of Faith	275
3.4	The Relation between Conscience and Illative Sense.....	281
	Conclusion and Summary	289
1.	John Henry Newman and Passion for Truth	289
1.1	John Henry Newman - «Lover of Truth»	289
1.2	Newman's Modern World - Historical Background	295
1.3	John Henry Newman's Approach to the Truth	302
2.	Final Comments and Conclusions	307
2.1	Newman's Considerations about Dialogue between Faith, Reason and Conscience	307
2.2	The Influence of Cardinal Newman's Achievements in the Field of Contemporary Moral Theology	313
2.3	General Conclusion	317
	Bibliography	329
1.	Magisterium	329
2.	Selected Works of John Henry Newman	330
3.	Writings about Newman	334
4.	Other Writings	342
	Index of Names	349